LAVENDER IN LAGUNA

An Art Mystery

Hyacinthe Baron

Welcome to the ride of a lifetime! Join the Barons and you too can play art detectives to solve another art mystery. Another innovative and brilliant Art Mystery: 90% Memoir, 10% fiction and 100% Great Story!

An Artist's Palette evokes hues and clues to solve the Art Mystery with a twist! The Barons can take their revenge as they search for God and religion in the resort Art Community of Laguna Beach, CA., the scene of Art Festivals and bizarre cult murders. Does a mysterious plant that grows only every 13 years in Hawaii hold the secret to the murders of an old woman and a beautiful model? What is the role of an Evangelical Priest and a powerful cult leader? Like a hologram this multi layered mystery will astound!

LOVE AT FIRST SIGHT:

The Barons meet, enter a whirlwind courtship They are on their honeymoon in Hawaii in 1971, a gift from Hyacinthe's art dealer, a notorious gangster and owner of Gold Feather Galleries in Los Angeles, and a drug dealer who sells illegal blocks of airline tickets and transports marijuana from the islands. They discover the ghost of a revered warrior king, a prankster who seems to leave them a yellow feather, on the rim of a volcano.

The honeymoon stretches from five days to three months, and when it is time to leave, Hyacinthe suspects that her husband, whom she hardly knows, is now a haunted man.

From Hawaii to Beverly Hills, CA the Barons encounter art mysteries and solve them with an artist's palette that elicits hues and clues to the secrets of human nature.
